College days pass quickly, and the life which we lived here soon becomes a memory. As you thumb through the pages of this year-book, you will recall the high lights of the year 1958-59. You will also be reminded of opportunities—some lost and some gained. By those we lost we learn to do better; by those we gained we enrich our lives. May the memories of the past year always call us to new achievements in our society and in Christ's kingdom.

MAY 8 AND 9, 1959

COSI FAN TUTTE is a comic opera with a light satire on women and romance. Enraged by Don Alfanso's slur upon their sweethearts, Ferrando and Guglielmo accept the old philosopher's wager that he can prove their sweethearts' fickleness in 24 hours if they follow his plan explicitly. After a touching farewell scene the lovers depart for the wars and leave the brokenhearted ladies in the hands of their maid, Despina, who is collaborating with Don Alfanso. The two men come back as "Albanians" and make love to Fiordiligi and Dorabella, who do not recognize their lovers.

In despair the Albanians pretend to take poison, but are revived by Despina in the disguise of a doctor. Their ardent advances are renewed and the ladies finally weaken and agree to marry. In the midst of the mock ceremony the lovers return undisguised and discover the marriage contract.

The production staff was headed by Mr. James Bixel as musical director and Mrs. Virginia Edgett as dramatics director. Rozella Schmidt and Dorothy Harms accompanied the opera.
